

Prayer 26/04

We thank you Lord our God, for this morning we have spent together and for any insights we have been given by the Holy Spirit through the sermon. We thank you that you give us this moment to worship you and to praise your Holy name. We are grateful to worship and to praise the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit! Like David said: How good it is to give thanks to you, O Lord, to sing in your honor, to proclaim your constant love every morning, and your faithfulness every night (Psalm 92:1-2).

Dear heavenly Father, we thank you for your creation and for the beautiful planet earth where we live, from where we benefit all kinds of resources. May you help us take our responsibilities to care and protect the earth for ourselves and for the coming generations.

Lord Jesus, We thank you, for your incarnation, death and resurrection, which give us hope for an eternal life in the kingdom of God. Through your blessings and your promises, we could enjoy our earthly life in peace and in hope, even in difficult moments. We thank you for being our strength in times of weakness and our comforter in times of sorrow. We thank you that we could take refuge in you. During this covid-19 pandemic, we pray for the medical workers in the front line who are fighting the disease, may you keep them safe both physically and psychologically. We pray for the patients who are suffering, may your healing hands touch them, we especially lift Elizabeth's mother Beth and her sister Cath into your hands, as they both have been confirmed with covid-19, may your presence and healing be with them.

Holy Spirit, We thank you for reminding us God's presence and his Infinite love. May you guide us to tell those who are in despair and darkness, that they may find hope and light in Christ. May the kingdom of God come over the whole world, for all people are longing for faith and for mercy.

Dear God, some times we think we are the ones in control of our lives. May you help us to see that we are so limited without your help. We ask for your grace so that we can surrender ourselves to you and experience the joy of your freedom in this coming week.

Glory be to the Father, to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit!

In Jesus Name We Pray.
